

What are your child care needs?

What do you want in an ideal world? There may be cost-effective solutions to meet your needs that you haven't thought of. Is your ideal childcare service a small group of friends with a trained carer in someone's home? Or would it be in a centre near your work? Think through what you need and what is best for your child. Consider your budget, consider your child's personality and development, your hours of work and how much travel you are prepared to do.

Some of the options for under three year olds

- Full day or part day care at home
- Live-in arrangement
- Full day or part day care at a centre
- Casual care at a centre
- Full day or part day care in family day care
- Care for children of rotating shift workers
- Work related evening care
- Occasional care
- Weekend care in a centre

Schedule of childcare needs

List your schedule of childcare needs for your pre-schoolers here. Separate lists for each child might be handy if you need different care for different ages, for example day care centre or kindy for older children and at-home care for younger ones.
